II Melbourne Chapter #29

The 60th Anniversary Celebration on 28 March was most successful. It was attended by P Walters, S Ma, F Brock and V Tan representing Sydney Chapter. The demonstration by Ichiyo Iemoto designate, Naohiro Kasuya was most creative, incorporating the large column in the room into his arrangement using bamboo and green branches with a touch of colour.

APRIL OPEN WEEKEND AT ERYLDENE

Saturday 13th & Sunday 14th April, 2019
10.00am – 4.00pm each day

Free entry: To celebrate Eryldene's 105th birthday, FREE entry for this open weekend.
With the smell of new paint in the air, the Waterhouse family moved into their new

Hardy Wilson designed house in Gordon on 12th April, 1914. In celebration of its 105th birthday Eryldene will throw open its house and garden to visitors.

See treasures from the Collection not usually on display, stroll through the world renowned garden, and take the opportunity to hear stories about the roles played by the Waterhouse family in the history of style, art, science, linguistics, horticulture and scholarship and the creation of the work of art we know as Eryldene today.

The Garden Cafe will be open for light refreshments.

Eryldene Sunday Afternoon Teas from 1.00 pm. Tea bookings essential

Free parking available at the junction of Werona and McIntosh Streets.
